

Call out for Artists!

The South African Creative Industries Incubator (Sacii) is looking for performers for our monthly “Expression Sessions”

The South African Creative Industries Incubator is hosting monthly events that will provide a platform for artists to showcase their artistry by expressing themselves through their art form. We are selecting performers in a variety of genres.

Artists are welcome to complete the SACII application form and attach an example of your work (video, online link, photo’s etc) as well as a bio or CV which tells us a little bit about you. Applicants will be adjudicated based on the submitted information and the eligible candidates will be given an opportunity to showcase their art form in one of the events hosted in the year by SACII. The closing date for the first call is the 18 May 2018 at 12:00.

Please return completed application forms and additional information to zola@sacii.co.za. Should you require further information you can contact Zola Lumko at (012) 806 4126.
